Grant Hicks CIM

Grant Hicks, CIM , is a well-known author, speaker, coach and practice management consultant. Grant is co-author of "Guerrilla Marketing for Financial Advisors" Innovating Financial Advisors through Practice Management, Morgan James Publishing.

Grant continually researches how top advisors consistently perform at a high-level using key practice management processes and shares how to implement these processes into your practice. What financial advisors learn from Grant Hicks produces results. He is President of Advisor Practice Management, a financial advisor training company. www.advisorpracticemanagement.com ,

Grant has 28 years of unique experience in the financial services industry. This includes building and selling a financial practice with over 120 million of assets. He was also the National Director of Practice Management for Manulife Financial in Canada.

Grant helps financial advisors who seek to be at the top of their profession, by implementing key practice management processes.