

What is the Advocis Banff School Faculty Dinner and Why is it Awesome?

The Advocis Banff School has never paid for a speaker in its 66 year history. And yet, the school still attracts top speakers from around the world. It helps that Banff is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is a desirable destination unto itself. But it's also worth noting that our speakers tend to get as much out of attending as they give. The networking opportunities, the learning opportunities and the fact that it's just FUN, have resulted in many speakers choosing to come back as attendees or to request repeat speaking opportunities.

Every year the Advocis Banff School hosts a Faculty Dinner where all the Faculty come together for an exclusive networking dinner in a secret location. It's an event that's only available to the Faculty and ONE lucky winner. The winner of the 2020 Advocis Banff School Faculty Dinner Contest will win their way into an amazing dinner and the chance to network with all the speakers in an intimate setting.

This kind of one-on-one time with industry leaders is impossible to come by any other way.

To win, you simply have to register and pay for the 2020 Advocis Banff School by January 15th and you'll be entered into a draw to win.
